

INUVIK MO1943

DESCRIPTION

Cooler backpack made from 600D RPET. Features a main compartment and a top pocket, both with an isothermal interior that helps keep food at the optimal temperature and allows smaller snacks to be stored. In addition, these compartments feature water resistant design zip closures, allowing the contents to be stored more securely and providing better protection against water and moisture. Incorporates a front exterior pocket with zip closure, featuring a reflective strip to improve visibility. In addition, it features two side compartments with zip closure and two additional mesh compartments for carrying other items such as bottles. Padded handles and back.
